Affiliated Regions, a part of the Coptic Orthodox Church of Egypt, a hierarchical Christian body whose leader, overseer and shepherd is the Pope of Alexandria and Patriarch of the See of St. Mark, and includes any Church entity.

"Church entity" means a body, corporate or unincorporate, established by the Church after the appointed day which:

- (a) has objectives not inconsistent with those of the Church as set out in the constitution, and
- (b) is certified in writing by the corporate trustees to be a Church entity for the purposes of this Act.

"constitution" means the constitution of the Church approved on 8 October 2002 by His Holiness Shenouda III, Pope of Alexandria and Patriarch of the See of St. Mark, as amended from time to time, or any document for the time being approved by the Pope of Alexandria and Patriarch of the See of St. Mark to replace that constitution.

"conveyance" includes transfer, assignment and assurance.

"corporate trustees" and "corporate body of trustees" includes corporate bodies of trustees now or hereafter to be constituted for the Church under this Act.

"Pope" means the leader, overseer and shepherd of the Church being the Pope of Alexandria and Patriarch of the See of St. Mark.

"Trust" means the Coptic Orthodox Church (NSW) Property Trust constituted by this Act.

"trust property" means property vested in or acquired by the Trust.

- (c) is recoverable by the Church or by any person (other than the Trust) for the Church, a reference in the instrument to the Church, or to that person, is to be taken to be a reference to the Trust.

PART 4—PARTICULAR POWERS OF THE TRUST

8 Trust may hold property jointly

The Trust may hold or acquire property either alone or jointly as a joint tenant or tenant-in-common.

9 Investment

- (1) The Trust may invest or lend any funds held by it in accordance with the terms of any trust to which the funds are subject.
- (2) The Trust may also invest or lend any such funds in accordance with the Trustee Act 1925 unless the investment or loan is expressly forbidden by the instrument (if any) creating the trust to which the funds are subject.

- (1) The Trust may invest trust funds held by it for different purposes or activities, or any part of those funds, as one fund ("the fund").
- (2) Any income arising from the investment of the fund may be distributed rateably for the benefit of carrying out the several purposes or activities for which the money invested is held on trust.
- (3) Any loss arising from the investment of the fund is to be distributed rateably to the detriment of carrying out the several purposes or activities for which the money invested is held on trust.
- (4) The Trust may make advances out of funds referred to in this section for any purpose of or relating to the Church.
- (5) Any sum so advanced is to be taken to be an investment of the money and bears interest at a rate fixed by the Trust.
- (6) The sum advanced, and any interest on that sum, is to be taken to be a charge on the assets held by the Trust for the purpose for which the advance is made.

11 Co-operative use of property

- (1) In this section, "scheme of co-operation" means a scheme entered into by the Trust:
 - (a) with or involving a church of another denomination or any congregation or activity of such a church, and
 - (b) concerning the use of trust property.

- (2) The Trust may permit trust property to be used, managed and administered for the purposes of a scheme of co-operation on such terms and conditions as the Trust determines.
- (3) Any proceeds obtained by the Trust from a scheme of co-operation are to be applied in the manner determined by the Trust.
- (4) Conditions that the Trust may determine under this section include:
 - (a) conditions with respect to the making of monetary contributions for the acquisition, construction, alteration, maintenance or repair of property vested in or held on behalf of a co-operating church or congregation, and
 - (b) the giving or taking of a security or charge over any property.
- (5) Trust property may be used pursuant to a scheme of co-operation except to the extent that the property is subject to an express trust expressly forbidding its use in that manner.
- (6) Trust property merely directed to be held on trust for the worship or purposes of the Church is not to be taken to be property that is subject to an express trust expressly forbidding its use pursuant to a scheme of co-operation.

12 Variation of trusts

- (1) The Trust may declare that, in its opinion, it has become impossible or inexpedient to carry out or observe the terms of a trust of property vested in it, whether as to its purpose or any other of its terms.
- (2) The Trust may by the same or a later declaration declare that the property is subject to another trust and if so:

- (a) the replaced trust ceases and determines, and
 - (b) the property is to be held subject to the other trust.
- (3) In making such a declaration the Trust must ensure that the property is to be dealt with as nearly as may be possible for the purposes for which the property was held immediately before the declaration.
 - (4) The Trust may declare that, in its opinion, it is impossible or inexpedient to deal with the property in accordance with subsection (3) because of circumstances arising after the creation of the replaced trust.
 - (5) On making a declaration under subsection (4), the Trust may hold, dispose of or otherwise deal with and apply the property for such purposes for the use and benefit of the Church as the Trust declares.

13 Trust may act as executor, administrator or trustee

- (1) The Trust may:
 - (a) apply for and obtain, or join in applying for and obtaining, probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, of a deceased person if the Church has a beneficial interest, vested or contingent, in the estate of that person, or
 - (b) accept appointment, and act, as trustee or co-trustee under and in pursuance of any trust if the trust property is not vested in the Trust by, or pursuant to, this Act, and the trust was created wholly or partly for the benefit of the Church, and may do all things necessary for the exercise of its functions as executor, administrator or trustee, as the case may be.

- (2) On behalf of the Trust, a person employed by the Trust may, if authorised in writing by the Trust for the purpose, swear an affidavit, make a declaration or statement, give security and do any other act or thing that is, by any charter, Act or rule of court, required to be done by a person applying for or granted probate or letters of administration, or administering a trust, as the case may be.
- (3) The Trust may:
 - (a) renounce executorship, or
 - (b) decline to act as administrator of an estate, or
 - (c) retire, or decline to act, as trustee of property (not being property vested in it by or pursuant to Part 3).
- (4) Any commission or other remuneration earned by the Trust as an executor, administrator or trustee appointed under the authority of this section belongs to the Trust and is to be used and applied by it for or towards any object or purpose specified or approved by the Trust.

14 Claims for compensation on compulsory acquisition etc

In relation to the exchange, dedication or compulsory acquisition of any trust property, the Trust may, subject to the constitution:

- (a) act on behalf of the Church and make claims for compensation, and
- (b) agree to and settle any such claims for such amount, and on such terms and conditions, as it thinks fit.
